

A N
H Y M N,
To be SUNG by the
CHARITY CHILDREN
Of St. MARY, ISLINGTON,

Before Two SERMONS to be Preached
On SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 21st, 1783.

That in the MORNING,
By the Reverend SAMUEL SEABURY, D. D. Rector of Stanton Island, New York, and Chaplain of the King's American Regiment.

And that in the AFTERNOON,
By the Reverend WILLIAM MARTIN LEAKE, ~~L.L.B.~~
Morning Preacher at the Foundling Hospital.

For the BENEFIT of the said CHILDREN.

N. B. Prayers will begin at a quarter before 11 o'Clock in the Morning, and a Quarter after in the Afternoon.

Two Voices.

O Gracious LORD, celestial KING!
Whose Goodness raptur'd Seraphs sing,
In never ceasing Lays;
From Heav'n look down, in Mercy hear,
Our feeble Infant Voices bear
The Echo of thy Praise.

Solo.

We know that grateful Love alone
From Earth can reach thy Glory's Throne;
This Tribute you receive,
For all thy Blessings shower'd down,
For all the Joys that Virtue crown,
Or Piety can give.

Chorus.

When helpless plung'd in Life's rude Wave,
Thy providential Arm could save,
And bring to Safety's Shore;
Where meek-ey'd Charity appears,
And wipes away our Orphan Tears,
Where Storms affright no more.

Solo and Chorus.—Hallelujah.

 By this CHARITY Thirty Boys and Twenty Girls are taught to Read, Write, and cast Accompts: They are annually clothed, furnished with Books, instructed in the Principles of the Christian Religion, and when of Age put out Apprentices, or to Services.

Persons willing to promote this Charity by Annual Subscription or Donation, are desired to give Notice of such their kind Intention to Mr. BROWN, the Treasurer, in the Lower Street, or to the Master of the School, a few Doors beyond the Church in the Upper Street, Islington.
